

July 22, 1941.

Mr. Paddy Moruke,
Stamford, Conn.

Dear Mr. Moruke:

I was out of town all last week. Returned Saturday Morning and learned through the mail the game The Eagles were booked to play in Stamford, July 24th had been cancelled. I was of course much surprised. Due to your letters, I had been looking forward to the date, and expected it to be very profitable.

I am writing today to Nat. Strong's office to see if I can find out just what happened. I assume Mr. Leuschner knew about it, as I found a confirmation to play in another spot that date. I would like to know exactly what caused the cancellation, as no one has authority to speak for The Eagles but this office. When I agreed to play the game and put my signature to the contract, I would have fulfilled all terms in it at any cost.

I received a letter from Mr. John Connolly, telling me the game had been cancelled, but offering no explanation of any kind. I wrote him today and told him I expected him to live up to this agreement and pay the $50.00 forfeit.

I have August 4th, 5th and 6th open. If you can arrange the three days in your neighborhood, I will bring The Eagles up. I have to be guaranteed at least $100.00 a day.

I hope to hear from you by return mail, so this situation can be cleared up. I am very sorry we didn't get to play the game at this time. Hope you will be able to book me August 4th, 5th and 6th.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ